CENSORED

Editorial

Editor:
James Turner

Our front cover shows Islamic Fundamentalists and Muslim terrorist supporters on the rampage in London. No arrests were made that day. Why have we splashed a CENSORED sign across it? Because the screw of racial and religious laws is being turned tighter all the time (see article in this issue "Turning the Screw"). How long before we cannot even object to scandalous scenes like this where Muslims call for the deaths of non-Muslims without being prosecuted by the looming "Religious Hatred Law"?

Now they are trying to squash criticism or even investigation of the controversial Holocaust of the Jews in the Second World War. Under a new EU proposal (surprise, surprise!) Casting any doubt whatsoever on the lie of the Holohoax will be linked to the disgusting Race Act which already forbids us telling the REAL truth about race, immigration, race-mixing, drugs and crime. You will in the future face jail for even investigating historical truth!

There may come a time when we have to publish BLANK leaflets with a heading such as "The real truth about Black crime" with the rest of the leaflet black and just a massive CENSORED BY THE RACE LAWS across it!

Vanguard continues to go from strength to strength with scores of new subscribers every month and now members and supporters of the BPP sending in for bulk copies to sell n and distribute. If you find you can sell 20 or more Vanguard's in your area then contact us and we can sort out a reasonable discount. Vanguard is a premier flagship for spreading the White Nationalism of the British People's Party. Hand on your copy to a friend or neighbour - get extra copies for distribution. We need to be selling in the thousands by the end of this year rather than the hundreds a month we are pushing out at the moment.

Can patriots sending in articles please bear in mind the Race Laws? We are bound by them YOU are not. We hate having to edit chunks out of articles, but your editor in prison would mean NO VANGUARD at all, so don't get upset if we have to edit for legal reasons and keep the laws (unjust as they are) in mind when you write your articles. Many thanks!

SCHOOL RACIAL SEGREGATION GROWING!

Cultural diversity in inner-city schools is failing with many becoming so polarised that they are dominated by one racial or religious group, a damning report will claim.

Race Equality Sandwell in the West Midlands, claims that schools in the region are becoming "all-white" or "all-Asian" despite drawing from multi-ethnic catchment areas.

Derrick Campbell, the chief executive of RES, said he was "extremely concerned" that children will leave school unable to fit into a diverse society. "My biggest worry is that schools and parents are propagating the notion of segregation," he said.

The report, to be published next week, covers schools across the West Midlands. It looked at admissions policies, catchment areas and wider socio-economic influences.

Mr Campbell said there were examples of neighbouring schools having an unnecessarily separate ethnic mix. It was caused by a range of factors, including parents wanting their children to be with those of a similar faith or background and schools failing to ensure a proper mix in their admissions policies.

He said: "Schools are becoming ghettos divided by race and it is having a negative effect on young people.

"The Government needs to restrict parental choice to ensure that the intake policy gives a fair chance and opportunities for schools to reflect the make up of the community."

He said the report found that while there was a growing segregation between white and Asian children, black Afro-Caribbean pupils tended to mix well with both.

Allison Fraser, the chief executive of Sandwell council, said the council was "committed to building and strengthening good community relations".

A Birmingham City Council spokesman said: "When parents apply for a school place at either level we recommend that they list their nearest community school as one of their references, therefore in many cases the community a pupil lives in will be reflected in the classroom."

Police officers given translation guide to deal with Romanian crime suspects.

Police officers have been handed a special translation guide to help them deal with Romanian crime suspects, it emerged yesterday. The initiative has been introduced to tackle a crime-wave involving East European thieves and pickpockets who are targeting London's West End. Since Romania joined the EU in January, thefts and handbag snatches have soared as organised crime gangs and beggars trawl the streets in the hunt for cash and valuables.

Political correctness stifling debate over segregation in our towns.

Political correctness and race laws are stifling vital debate over the "White fright" which threatens segregation in British communities, a respected Government advisor has warned. Professor Ted Cantle claimed laws designed to stop extremists stirring up racial hatred were becoming "part of the problem" as normal people increasingly feel unable to voice their concerns or unease over changes in society.

Tory in child-porn shame

A top Tory has escaped jail for downloading Internet child porn. Teacher Robert Dockerill, 31, a former chairman of Erewash Conservative Association in Derbyshire, had 172 indecent images. Some were on a computer at Loughborough Grammar School, Leics, where he worked. He was given a 36-month rehabilitation order.

Children must be brainwashed

All children should be forced to take part in religious education lessons at school to stamp out extremism and racism at a young age, according to a delegation of faith groups. The Religious Education Council of England and Wales claims that some parents are abusing their right to withdraw children from RE on grounds of "conscience" because they have an axe to grind against particular faiths. In recent years, many children have been taken out of lessons because parents did not want them to learn about Islam. Other families have pulled children out of school trips to mosques. The RE Council says the Government should considering stripping parents of the right to withdraw their children because it undermined attempts to "promote community cohesion, and combat racism and discrimination".

Believe it or not!

Eastern Europeans using public lavatory as a B&B. A new £250,000 public lavatory is being used as a B&B by Polish builders who sleep there for 20p a night. The scandal was exposed after businesses opposite the lavatories in Stamford Hill, east London, spotted groups of people living in the newly-built cubicles. Eastern European workers are reported to be fighting each other to sleep in the bigger, disabled cubicle!

Why White Nationalism in the 21st Century?

By Pete Williamson

Over the past few years more and more unenlightened folk have asked me this question. Why do we require a nationalist movement in the 21st Century? In such modern times, they ask, why can we not peacefully co-exist without the worry of one community being a threat to another?

Very simple questions, but if I was to answer in such simplistic terms, I would be accused of making blind sweeping statements. And so the curious yet ignorant folk ask a simple question, and they demand a sophisticated answer. Most patriots and all genuine nationalists know how easy the real answer is...

Every four years or so we are expected to elect a government, that with impunity, has made us into third and fourth rate citizens in our own country. Who have promised again and again to deal with the problems caused by mass immigration, only to gain office, and blatantly leave the floodgates open. Year upon year, crime rates, violent crimes in particular have risen at alarming rates, as immigration, especially third world immigration, has increased. Immigrants are using up all the public housing, and the fact that they will work for peanuts means they are taking our jobs. Then there is the curse of the red monsters who attach themselves to these immigrants, under the guise of protecting their human rights. This of course is rubbish; Communism is the enemy of race and nation, and most of all individuality. The inadequate who aspire to communism would like to force everyone to be the same, so that they can become equal without earning the right. Remember, equality only serves the weak and inadequate.

So those are the basics, the things we all understand, and the very issues we are persecuted for resisting. Unfortunately spelling out the basics is not enough to convince the ignorant masses. So how do we make ourselves understood? I've been giving this a lot of thought. And although I know it will need even more thinking over, and by better brains than mine, here is what I have come up with.

IIn the none too distant past, British people used to think of Great Britain as being our HOME. Should one have reason to venture overseas, then it was Great Britain that one would miss. When a person became homesick, it would be because he or she was missing Great Britain. There was no place like Great Britain, no place like home. This is sadly no longer the case, as I know fully well from personal experience. I travel from time to time, and after a week or so I feel a desire to return home. Unfortunately returning back to Great Britain, (as was), is no longer enough. Most parts of the UK are just as foreign now as wherever I have travelled to. I only actually feel at home when I have closed my own front door behind me. So what has changed? Well looking back only as far as the seventies, I remember there being what used to be known as local communities. In those communities everybody knew each other, the children played together and attended the same schools, community events were organised and everyone would attend them. The word community is still used, but to me that is all it is, a word. Nowadays there is no such thing as a 'local community' as such. There are 'gay' communities, 'black' communities, and 'Muslim' communities. Even special communities for the disabled, like they really needed further separation from everyone else. Any attempt made at forming a local community in the old fashioned sense of the word is now seen as 'tribalism', or heaven forbid 'Xenophobia'. Anyone who expresses a desire to bring back the traditions of our forefathers is branded 'racist', a word made up by those who abuse our country and its people, as a big stick to beat anybody who dares to resist them with. In a nutshell, everyone is allowed an identity, except us.

So who is the real enemy? Black people? Asians? Homosexuals? Well no actually, the real enemies are two things we can at least try and overcome. The government and their puppets in the civil services, and most of all ignorance. In fact I believe ignorance to be the biggest obstacle of them all. We are not vilified by the masses because we are bad people, we are not bad people, we care more than most, and there is nothing bad about caring. The main reason for the way we are perceived is the ignorance of the general public. Not unintelligence, one could be highly intelligent, yet still terribly ignorant. And the biggest reason for the huge amount of ignorant people, is the tyranny of 'political correctness' that has been foisted upon us all over the last twenty or so years. We have now become our own worst enemy. Thus the battle ahead becomes increasingly difficult. Before we can overcome a political and social system that has been perverted for decades, we first have to overcome ourselves.

To me the only answer to all these problems is White Nationalism. If there is a better way, I have yet to hear it.

But try explaining that!

MISSING!

A Future for White Children

Description: Blonde, red, or brown hair, fair skin; innocent, inquisitive, intelligent, trusting personality.

Corrupt politicians and minority special-interest groups have abducted her future. There will be no future for her in the Third World Britain that our nation's enemies are planning. Let us take back our country and make it great, clean, decent, and beautiful once again: for our children's sake.

The British People's Party want you to join in this great, patriotic effort...

Don't carry on Cabbie!

Cabbies in Blackpool were told they will be stripped of their licences if they sport anything featuring the word England, the Cross of St George or the Three Lions shield. One claims he was told it might prove offensive to visitors from other parts of the UK.

The angry drivers have accused the local council - which is currently flying a flag in support of a Gay Pride event above the Town Hall - of taking political correctness to ridiculous limits....

"That's ridiculous. Our council is supporting a Gay Pride event yet we're not permitted to support our country - where's the logic in that?"

Thoughts and reflections...

by Harry Mullin

(New regular feature)

Homosexuals have been able to get their sexual orientation regulations passed by our government. This we are told will grant them equality. Homosexuals will probably seek to establish case law in their favour. This could be done by two overt homosexuals making a booking in a hotel, whilst kissing and caressing each other. If the manager of the hotel was offended by their behaviour and refused to permit them to stay in his property, they will run wailing to the cops to level a complaint, saying they have been denied equality under law. They will probably have made an arrangement with some cop who is a homosexual himself. Thus the hotel owner will find himself in a court being sued for damages.

Sodomites should realise that their attempts to impose their life-style on we non-homosexuals, could create a bitter and violent backlash against them. It could end up with bands of enraged vigilantes attacking the sodomites and their supporters! Who knows what can of worms the queers have opened?

Years ago I was down in London as a taxi driver. I went for a walk to Hyde Park Corner to hear the speakers, some of whom are very interesting. There was one man standing up on a platform with Israeli flags flying. He was obviously a pro -Jewish Zionist. It always puzzles me why Zionists stay here in Britain yet still root for Israel, a foreign nation in the Middle East. If I were a Zionist I would be off to my own land. Common honesty would demand it, but these Zionists are obviously not honest folk. They stay in our land, eat our British bread, yet express loyalty for a foreign power in the Middle East. To me this is traitorous behaviour.

In the Communist manifesto, Marx and Engels say the bourgeoisie have broken the bands that formerly united folk in their nations. Before religious unity bred respect among the lower classes in society and a sense of responsibility amongst the upper classes. Now it has been replaced by the cash nexus.
Looked how it worked out among the working class in my younger days. Refusal to do any military service was regarded as a serious offence. Those deemed guilty were rubbished in the mass media
And given serious gaol sentence. I once saw a policeman in our street battering a man with a baton. My brother, in naval uniform, ran over and grabbed the baton to stop the cop battering the man. The cop replied "But he's a deserter!"

Here was a man who lived in the slums of Glasgow. His home was ridden with vermin - bugs, lice, rats ad mice - yet the bourgeoisie expected him to go out and "fight for his country". Old bonds have been severed and national unity is a thing of the past.

Strange but true, British taxpayers, who face losing their weekly rubbish collection, are funding nightly dustbin rounds on the remote Galapagos Islands.

The dustbin rounds on the South American islands are being financed by the European Union, to whom the UK pays £10.5billion annually. The EU says that tourism on the Galapagos has increased dramatically, and the majority of those are from western Europe. It claims that the EU is helping the Galapagos set up an "integrated waste management system".

Refuse collection on Santa Cruz is funded by YOUR tax money!

The Galapagos Islands charge tourists a £50 fee before they leave the airport, as a payment for entering the national park. With so much money coming in from visiting tourists, the Islands should be able to pay for their own rubbish collections!

TO OUR SILENT BROTHERS - A MESSAGE FROM THE BPP

by Eddy Morrison

received an e-mail the other day from a White Nationalist comrade. He said he had been out for a drink the night before and was with no less than ten other White Nationalists NONE OF WHOM WERE IN ANY PARTY. My comrade went out to say that one of the main reasons why these talented and skilled White men and women, former members of Nationalist parties of the past, were no longer active was that they were SICK TO THE TEETH of the backbiting, backstabbing and character assassination which riddled the whole National Movement in Great Britain. I reflected on this and realised the great and terrible truth of the fact. For every active British patriot now in one organisation or another, there are at an educated guess around TEN former members of whatever Movement - who are standing in the sidelines not knowing what to do.

This is a truly huge reservoir of unused talent, experience and commitment just going to waste. In this short message to those I will call my Silent Brothers (and Sisters!), I say the British People's Party is showing that we can build a Movement of unadultered White Nationalism devoid of compromise BUT which totally refuses to get involved in all the petty squabbling and backbiting that is besmirching both British Nationalism and the wider creed of White Nationalism.

The BPP proscribes nobody from our side no matter what party they are in. We do not respond to insults and innuendo and treat each new member purely on their merits. Have they talents that can be used for the building of a truly great White Nationalist movement in our country? If the answer is yes, then we accept them as Comrades.

To our Silent Brothers and Sisters we say the time is running out for the very existence of our people. Where last century we could count many decades before racial extinction overwhelms us, we are now down to just a few. By 2060 IF NOT BEFORE, the White people of this country will become a minority. They possibly already are in our Nation's capital and some other areas. It is a frightening prospect.

The BPP feel it is following the traditional White Nationalist path to power and we are sticking to our core principles. Others have different ideas and we have said and will continue to say "Good luck to them", even if we do not believe they are following the right path. In their own hearts they are fighting for their country the best way they know how and any TRUE patriot from any group or party who is out there in our ZOG dominated land still valiantly flying the flag is to be applauded - not attacked and smeared.

The BPP pledges never, never, never to get down in the mire and spend valuable and very precious time annihilating the morale and efforts of other White patriots.

We believe thought that only hard work and sacrifice - planning and good strategy is the answer. We believe the BPP is the last refuge of all true White Nationalists - especially YOU, my silent brethren who have already walked through the fire and who know who the real enemy is. You who know this fight is a world wide fight against a world wide enemy, attacking the White Race everywhere and anywhere it can!

We are determined to stand by the Black, White and Red colours of our ancient Celtic Cross flag and let me say directly to this Silent Brotherhood - YOUR time and OUR time is now! The radical White Nationalist Movement is being built, but will be built a lot more quickly if YOU come back out of the shadows and join once again in our struggle for the building of a truly radical alternative to the Old System. We need your talent and experience. We need your know-how.

WE NEED YOU and we remind you of your duty to your Race and your Nation.

Stand with us now in this final

Battle for Britain!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir:
I felt I needed to send in this letter because I am so disgusted at what is happening in our country under the Labour Government.
I am a 27yr old teacher of English. What disgusts me is that if I express my true opinions and beliefs about Islamic extremists, Muslim teachings and immigration that I could lose my job.
What happened to freedom of speech?
I am not a racist. Rather - I detest this recent tendency to attack and censor anything 'traditionally' English/British. Why can we not celebrate Christian festivals in our schools? Now we live in fear of offending our immigrants. If British people moved to another culture we would be expected to respect their way of life. So why can't we respect our own?
I know of charity shops that have banned the sale of religious Christian cards, in Cradley Heath. They have done so in case they offend Islamic followers.
I AM NOT RELIGIOUS! It is the whole freedom of speech and personal liberty aspect that riles me. What is good for one is good for another. I'm sorry - but if Islamic fundamentalists want to live here then they had better CHANGE. Or our country will become ENGLAKISTAN!
As a woman, I strongly object to the sexist and subjective Islamic laws. Human rights laws should be considered above their ridiculous patriarchal doctrines.
Let's hope the public REALISES the cultural threat to our nation before it is too late.

Female teacher, 27, Midlands

Sir:
They are pushing for a twinning plan to stop race divide. Schools with a predominantly White pupil intake are being told to twin with ethnically-diverse schools - to foster better community relations. The government is putting a legal requirement on schools in England to promote "community cohesion". Head teachers' leader, Mick Brookes, said that he "winced" at this latest initiative facing schools. Schools which do not reflect the wider diversity of society must make links with other schools and organisations in order to give pupils the chance to mix with those from different backgrounds.
Where the hell will it end?

Kevin Hall, Cardiff

Sir:
Can you believe this? LUXURY household goods are being given to ETHNIC council tenants free of charge - if they are in "an ethnic minority". State-of-the-art kitchen and bathroom gadgets are being dished out to those with "housing needs that are different from the British community".
Standard electric ovens will be replaced with posh gas cookers because some religions require that food is cooked over an open flame.
And showers will be added to baths because some religions forbid followers from sitting in stale water.
The astonishing policy - all paid for by YOU the taxpayer - has been approved by the Government. Every council in England and Wales now has a £50,000 "diversity fund". But only a fraction of the UK's council tenants is eligible for the freebies.
Dr Tia MacGregor, a Muslim and an independent Councillor in Oxford - where several tenants have taken advantage of the handouts - said the scheme made a mockery of discrimination laws.
She added: "What this strategy is saying is that if you want something because of your faith, you get it.
"What about Jedi Knights - would they have a cupboard fitted to put their light sabres in?"
But Oxford Councillor Patrick Murray said: "We count faith like disability and other personal needs as an understandable reason for a request."

Karen "Disgusted" of Wakefield

Sir:
I noticed ONLY Labour politicians, along with out of touch church leaders/trade union leaders were marching in London demanding an amnesty for half a million illegal immigrants... when are these people going to realise we don't want any more immigrants ? just because it's difficult keeping the paperwork up to date with human right laws that labour introduced to help them stay in the first place, is no reason for letting them stay only to be replaced by another half a million the following year. If you haven't the stomach for dealing with immigration - then make way for those who WILL sort out this mess !

J. Chorlton, Birmingham

Sir:
What a damning indictment the recent Local Government Elections proved to be.
In Scotland, one hundred thousand voters couldn't understand whether to put a 'X' next to one name or 1, 2, 3, 4 next to candidates on another list.
A local TV report highlighted a nineteen-year-old standing for the Conservatives in the Sale Ward of Manchester. Various members of the public were interviewed, one of whom was a young woman. She did not know who to vote for until she was shown a list of the candidates and she picked "the bird" to vote for. This turned out to be the Lib-Dem candidate. She knew nothing of politics but liked the logo!
Should such people have a say in what puppet runs the country? Is it these kind of people who keep the whole Tweedle Dum / Tweedle Dee two-party dictatorship alive?
The vast majority of the electorate don't understand there is no discernable difference between the main parties and it is in those parties' interests to keep it that way. They know it will soon be their turn to get their snouts in the trough should they momentarily be out of office.
I fully expect the Conservatives to win the next General Election, but as their string pullers are the same Globalists pulling new Labour's strings at the moment, the electorate will soon be fed up with them. It will then be New Labour's turn again.
I think it was Karl Marx who once described democracy as "two minutes in a polling booth every five years." Much as I despise Marxism, I have to agree with him on this point.
Britain needs a strong Nationalist government, independent of interference from big business, bankers and others and also with a social conscience doing what is best for its own people, with a clear mandate from those people to implement policies without having to play the party system.

STAND BY LOYAL ULSTER!

Loyal Ulster is under threat! A conspiracy by the 'British' and Irish governments, hand in hand with the Marxist IRA, is endangering the status of Northern Ireland as part of Great Britain!

The aim of the murdering IRA and their fellow Irish Republican travellers is to create a single state of Ireland ruled by Dublin by using any means at their disposal. They are experts at indiscriminately murdering innocent people by the bomb and the bullet. Contrary to the conditions of the so-called 'peace treaty' known as the 'Good Friday Agreement' the IRA are still in existence and their terror programme is still in operation. Their members are once again on our streets continuing their campaign of hate against the British people of Ulster. All these red terrorists should have received the death penalty for their crimes and hung like common criminals. To those who will say that Loyalist prisoners have also been released, we state that those loyal Britons should not have been imprisoned in the first place. Would any other country jail its citizens for fighting to defend it from attack by a foreign power? In Britain though, those standing up for our nation are condemned by both the corrupt politicians in power and by the pro-Republican media, most of whose journalists subscribe to the politics of Karl Marx like their comrades in the IRA.

Ulster is, and must always remain, British. Those people currently resident in Northern Ireland who refuse to renounce allegiance to the Irish Republic and do not consider themselves British should lose their British Citizenship and, as a result, their automatic right to live on British soil. This would enable all IRA activists and their supporters to be removed permanently from the UK.

The White Nationalist Party supports the right of the British people of Ulster to maintain their British heritage within the United Kingdom.

We say to hell with Tony Blair and his IRA supporting string-pullers in the USA.

FREEDOM? WHAT FREEDOM?

For hundreds of years freedom of speech has been the right of every honest British Man and woman. Now that birthright has been taken from you.

Labour and Conservative governments have passed Race Laws and Public Order laws which forbid full and free discussion of the questions of race and immigration in Britain. They know their precious multiracial Britain is a DISASTER - so they are shutting up the voices of dissent by dragging honest White patriots before their law courts and fining or jailing them for the most trivial offences!

Are you ANGRY about the way free speech has been taken away from you? Are you ANGRY that you can no longer speak about the crisis mass immigration and the floods of asylum seekers have brought to this country? Are you ANGRY that race riots are tearing up towns such as Oldham, Burnley and Bradford and you can't say a thing about it?

Now a new flood has started. Tens of thousands of 'asylum seekers', supposedly fleeing oppression in their own countries but in many cases just getting a free ride on our economy, are coming into this country from Albania, Kosovo and from dozens of Third World countries. Our economy can not bear the strain of all these new benefit seekers, sorry, 'asylum seekers' - many of them bogus.

The present government, which doesn't give a damn about the real British people, are turning out these fake refugees into many different areas of Britain and years will be one of them! These bogus 'refugees' and illegal immigrants are now housed, at YOUR expense, in houses courtesy of your local council. They have been housed ahead of ordinary Britons who been on the waiting lists for years. They are claiming Social Security benefits, all paid for by us, whilst our old folk freeze to death because they can't afford to pay their fuel bills and people are turned away from hospitals to die because there isn't enough money for beds. Satellite TV, mobile phones, new furniture - you name it, they've got it - ALL FREE! Even working people find it hard to afford these luxuries yet these people are getting it all on top of the usual child benefit, housing benefit and massive cash payments from the DSS. Soft touch Britain - it's a joke but the White working people, whose ancestors fought and died for this country, aren't laughing as they pay for these 'refugees' to live a life of luxury!

Only a firm policy that will STOP IMMIGRATION and begin a programme of humane, phased REPATRIATION can save Britain from this floodtide. This isn't a policy of 'racial hatred', it is a policy of COMMON SENSE!

WAR CRIMINAL

27th June - a day to really celebrate!

It's now official - the war criminal, liar and neo-Marxist traitor Tony Blair will be stepping down as Prime Minister. The whole of Britain will breath a great sigh of relief! No doubt Blair and his obnoxious other half will raking it in from doctored "Memoirs" and hoping that the British people will forget a time when Blair ran Britain (on behalf of the Globalists of the New World Order) and his Marxist New Labour government passed more repressive laws than any other government in British history. Well we have news for your Blair. The White Nationalists of the BPP will NOT FORGET! One day you will be called to account for your gross treachery and will face a court made up of real British patriots - then WE will review your real memoirs!

Holocaust 'ban' e-mail confusion

Chain letters and e-mails are circulating around the world, claiming the UK has banned the teaching of the Holocaust in schools. The suggestion is this has been done to avoid offending Muslim communities. The UK has four school systems but the government recently reaffirmed that in England, teaching a number of issues, including the Holocaust, is compulsory. The source of the rumour may be a report that some history teachers were uncomfortable with sensitive subjects. A number of people have contacted the BBC Nws website querying e-mails and letters they have been sent. One example is headed "In Memoriam". It says: "Recently this week, UK removed The Holocaust from its school curriculum because it 'offended' the Moslem population which claims it never occurred.
It adds: "This is a frightening portent of the fear that is gripping the world and how easily each country is giving into it."

'Emotive'
The report that may have given rise to the alarm was commissioned by England's Department for Education and Skills from the Historical Association, which promotes the study and teaching of history. It said: "Teachers and schools avoid emotive and controversial history for a variety of reasons, some of which are well-intentioned. "Staff may wish to avoid causing offence or appearing insensitive to individuals or groups in their classes. "In particular settings, teachers of history are unwilling to challenge highly contentious or charged versions of history in which pupils are steeped at home, in their community or in a place of worship."

'Holocaust denial'
The report gave as an example a history department in a northern city which "recently avoided selecting the Holocaust as a topic for GCSE coursework for fear of confronting anti-Semitic sentiment and Holocaust denial among some Muslim pupils". The government said there was scope for schools to make their own decision on what to teach within the national curriculum. But a spokesman added: "Teaching of the Holocaust is already compulsory in schools at Key Stage 3 [ages 11 to 14]. "It will remain so in the new KS3 curriculum from September 2008." He said Education Secretary Alan Johnson himself had stressed this. In the rest of the UK Holocaust teaching is not compulsory, but this has not changed recently.

LEGACY OF A LIAR

NEW LABOUR Prime Minister TONY BLAIR leaves behind him a most terrible legacy of lies, corruption, scandal and betrayal. A despicable traitor who will surely go down in British history as probably the worst Prime Minister Great Britain has ever had.

During his ten years in office, everything that TONY BLAIR promised he would do for the country, has done nothing whatsoever to improve the lot of White British citizens in the UK today; in fact, he has made things much worse! Instead of our people having a common sense of safety, security, happiness and well-being within British society, we are forced to endure the harrowing nightmare that is 'BLAIR'S BRITAIN', and to live our lives in a growing climate of OPPRESSION, INTIMIDATION AND FEAR.

IN HIS 1997 election victory speeches TONY BLAIR said, "...as a government we must invest in the future of Britain." However, that was a LIE - PM Blair and his New Labour government have sought only to destabilise, dismantle and destroy Great Britain!

Our rich cultural heritage and our British National Identity is being slowly erased. Traditional family values and our unique 'British' way of life have been relentlessly attacked, undermined and trashed from every angle and at all levels by New Labour. Our people are treated with indifference and contempt; we are threatened with prison if we protest, silenced if we dare to speak out, and pushed aside in favour of resentful hordes of free-loading foreigners and migrant workers. Our people are being relentlessly brow-beaten into submission to accept Blair's crime-ridden, multi-racial garbage dump.

IN BRITAIN TODAY, our children grow up in a warped, morally corrupt, 'government engineered' society. They are continually force-fed a mind-numbing diet of multi-culturalism and sickening political correctness, specifically aimed at removing all sense of National identity, self-esteem and common pride - sucking every last precious drop of 'Britishness' out of our people! The slightest glimmer of White British Nationalistic pride or British cultural celebration displayed by any of our people, is immediately condemned by the government and the controlled media as "bigotry" and "racism."

AS A DIRECT result of ten years of Tony Blair and New Labour, there is now NO GUARANTEE of a safe and secure future for our people here in Great Britain - unless we act now to change things, and work together to combat this tyranny. Not to be afraid to speak out and protest against this government's despicable treatment of our people and the disgusting betrayal of our nation. The terrible results of complacency, wilful ignorance, turning a blind eye, or just hoping for change by voting for the mainstream political parties - sadly, can be seen all around us today...

IT HAS TAKEN time, but more and more of our people are realising what terrible social and moral effects New Labour's 'open-house' policy on Immigration and asylum is having upon White British society. Tony Blair's imported ethnic rabble is being allowed, encouraged (and funded) to invade, infect and poison every aspect of our unique and much treasured 'British' way of life. Since he came to power, Tony Blair has given White Britons absolutely NOTHING but lies, broken promises, empty words and false hopes for the future - but he has given sponging immigrants and greedy migrant workers a free meal ticket and the keys to OUR Kingdom, all at OUR expense...

TONY BLAIR is an arch-deceiver - presenting himself as a friendly, smiling charmer, but inwardly a ravening wolf, who harbours a murderous, and ruthless aggressiveness for destroying anything and everything "British". Behind the smug smile, there lurks something dark, disturbing and very nasty indeed! Blair's super-inflated ego, fuelled by adoration and success, led him to crave... immortality - much like Margaret Thatcher. Tony Blair had hoped that the Iraq war was going to be his ticket to fame and glory in our UK history books - it turned out to be a very different story...

Right from the onset, TONY BLAIR has always been too overawed by USA power and praise to think seriously about British national interests and he has completely ignored the well being our people, seeking only to wreak havoc upon the stability of our nation and undermine our position in the international community. Tony Blair's sickening and pitiful addiction to patronage, peerages and spin, and his fraudulent box-ticking manipulation of public services really highlights 'the true nature' of this despotic Britain-destroying fiend.

TONY BLAIR will be remembered for being an arrogant self-centred LIAR, with his mindless pandering to USA president George Bush and his insane war in Iraq, his egotistical millionaire-worship, and his deep desire to continually rub shoulders with the supra-rich elite. Tony Blair exits from British politics leaving behind him an oil slick of political lunacy, suicidal incompetence, and his 'control-freak' government's draconian 'nanny state' and 'big brother' police state mentality.

We must be thankful... TONY BLAIR has ended up weakening New Labour and creating in it a deep crisis of identity. Indeed, PM Blair has done a more effective job of destroying the credibility of New Labour than we British Nationalists could of ever hoped that any Conservative leader who has ever lived would have done!

Incredibly, many of those millions of 'sheeple' who voted for Tony Blair in 1997 still have loyalty, respect and admiration for him, and his supporters liken his departure to an honourable captain who is prepared to go down with his ship. However, one wonders how the brainwashed really feel as Captain Blair's long drawn out exit from British politics is a clear sign to our nation that the corrupt, war torn, blood-stained New Labour ship is also sinking with him!

Never before in our Great British history has a democratic Western leader squandered so much political capital to so little good effect! In ten years, countless BILLIONS of pounds of taxpayers money / British wealth has quite literally 'disappeared' and been 'given away' to undeserving hands.

If we must consider what has been 'good' about Tony Blair's ten years as Prime Minister, we can only conclude that the increases in the minimum wage is his finest contribution to a nation whom he has governed with our WORST interests in mind!

Indeed, EVERYTHING that has gone wrong - EVERY disastrous decision, terrible mistake and sleazy scandal, from the cash-for-honours party funding scandal, to the war torn wastelands that are Iraq and Afghanistan - has Tony Blair's personal 'rubber stamp of approval' firmly stamped upon them.

At the beginning of his REIGN OF TERROR, Tony Blair's electoral buzz words were: "Education, Education, Education!"

Today, as Prime Minister Blair prepares to bow out of British politics, his closing statement used to describe what ten years of his New Labour government has done for Britain and for her people should be:

"DEVOLUTION, DESTABILISING, AND DECIMATION..."

Right:

Liar, hypocrite, corrupt and a spin master without scruples or morals - Blair, perhaps Britain's WORST ever Prime Minister?

If a picture paints a thousand words....

POLITICALLY CORRECT DICTIONARY CONTINUED - SOME MORE TWIST SPEAK FOR YOU!

Evolution
The process of natural selection whereby the strongest, most adaptable and resourceful organisms are able to survive and reproduce while the less viable ones become extinct. The evolution of mankind has always been spearheaded by a few gifted races and their most outstanding representatives, albeit at the expense of their natural inferiors. Liberalism seeks to invert this process by exalting and fostering weakness, humility, mediocrity, degeneracy, and the mongrelisation of humanity. By contrast, the Race-and-Nation philosophy is entirely in accord with the cosmic scheme of things and must therefore ultimately triumph. The alternative is the collective regression of humanity.

Free Trade
An economic doctrine based on removing all undue governmental restraints on business enterprise. The word 'undue' is crucial here, since no sensible government can allow private businesses to engage in activities damaging to the national interest. In practice, some companies, especially those with international connections, are quite prepared to ignore the national interest whenever it suits their purposes. The test of a worthwhile business is that it not only shows a profit but that it also improves the quality of life of its employees and serves the national economic interest.

Freedom
Absence of unnecessary and unjust constraints on thought, speech and behaviour in society. Freedom, however, is necessarily limited by social obligations and legislation designed to provide an orderly and safe environment for the general public and to ensure conformity with certain standards of behaviour (aptly summed up by the phrase "Your freedom to wave your fist ends where my nose begins").
It is said that the real test of an allegedly free society is the way it treats its dissidents. Only those individuals who have personally tested the Establishment's tolerance (or lack of it) of political dissent are qualified to judge the real extent of personal liberty in Britain today. Their reports are at once very illuminating and profoundly depressing. We now have laws which make it a punishable offence to discriminate in favour of kinfolk, to recognise the actual differences between races and sexes, to make certain unfavourable but manifestly true comments about multi-racialism, and to demonstrate in support of British patriotism. Such tendentious legislation and ideological tyranny is repugnant to any genuine freedom-lover, but has been all too easily imposed on a population besotted with mindless entertainment and the dependency culture.
In an unjust society the worst people celebrate their freedom while the best are liable to find themselves in jail.

Family
The basic unit of any worthwhile and viable society. This is nowadays contested by feminists, homosexuals and dotty sociologists, with about as much credibility as criminals contesting law and order. It is incumbent on government to cherish family values by giving taxation benefits to married couples with children or with elderly or dependent relatives to support.
Marriage and parenthood must be regarded not as a right but a privilege. Motherhood must be seen to have a social status above that of any other female occupation. Breakdown of the (extended) family is self-evidently a prime cause of rising delinquency, drug addiction, child abuse, poverty, and an insupportable social services budget. A truly family-based socio-economic order is not only basic to the quality of life but also vastly cheaper in terms of taxation and social services.

'Gay'
Homosexual slang for male sex pervert. Such euphemisms are intended to hide disgusting behaviour behind an attractive label. In fact, less than 4 per cent of people are actively homosexual; and while some of these may exhibit 'gaiety' now and then most are notoriously neurotic and dismal specimens.
In any dialogue where someone uses the word 'gay' in this way, one should always insist on the term 'sex pervert' or 'sodomist' until the neutral word 'homosexual' is substituted.

Genocide
Campaign likely to exterminate a particular race, either by direct attack or by multiracial policies which can only disadvantage that particular racial group and lead to its ultimate subjugation by others. In a world where the white race is vastly outnumbered, 'multi-racialism' is a plainly genocidal policy for white people.

Gender
The role of women is to complement men and not to compete with them. Sadly, when men cease to be men, some women are apt to assume male roles, however inadequately. Feminist policies have no place in a wholesome society and pose a real threat to womankind and children. No man worthy of the name should accept a subordinate role to a woman in those occupations obviously better engaged in by men than women; for example, heavy industry, the police, the armed forces and top business management.
There will always be some women unsuited to marriage and motherhood for one reason or another, and these can of course seek fulfilment in other ways. But those women besotted with gender issues are driven not by concern for natural justice but by private resentments arising from childhood traumas or unhappy personal experiences with men (see RP Syndrome).

'Gliberal'
Term of derision for those given to egalitarian claptrap.

'Human Rights'
A fashionable liberal term to describe what, at root, amounts to anarchy. There are no rights without commensurate responsibilities; and in any event so-called 'human rights' are never more than social or political conventions. Even the child's right to care and protection carries the responsibility to care for its parents when they become frail and dependent. Rights and duties are therefore indivisible sides of the moral coinage.

'Extremism
The majority of people are innately conservative (small 'c') and wary of anything sounding at all radical. This fact is cynically exploited by liberal politicians, who describe all opposing viewpoints as 'extremist', with a view to scaring the public away from them. British Nationalists are unblushingly 'extremist' in their opposition to a liberal 'moderation'which is leading this country to disaster.
Moderation' in the cause of treachery is no virtue; 'extremism' in defence of our nation is no vice.

Vanguard Book Review...

A poignant record of life under Mugabe

When A Crocodile Eats The Sun, by Peter Godwin.
Published (hardback) by Picador. £16.99

FROM the brilliant Zimbabwe-born author and journalist Peter Godwin, When A Crocodile Eats The Sun is the hotly-anticipated follow-up to Mukiwa: A White Boy In Africa, and it certainly doesn't disappoint. Tinged with memories of a magical childhood in Africa, the systematic decimation of Zimbabwe is a subject close to Godwin's heart, and makes this book an extraordinarily powerful and emotional memoir of a country whose suffering has been largely forgotten - or indeed ignored - by the rest of the world.

The Zulus have an ancient belief that solar eclipses only occur when a crocodile eats the sun, but it also works as a perfect metaphor to describe the terrifying descent into darkness which has ail-but enveloped Zimbabwe since Robert Mugabe was elected president in 1980. Following 15 years of minority rule under Ian Smith, Mugabe and his ZANU-PF party initially represented high hopes for a completely new political and social landscape for all of the people living in the former Rhodesia.

However, the horrifying realities of Mugabe's new regime were soon made apparent to all Zimbabweans, regardless of creed or colour, and what was once touted as the "bread-basket" of Africa quickly went into free-fall with daily incidents of brutality and intimidation becoming as commonplace as chronic food shortages and hyper-inflation. Through the lives of his incredibly resilient and brave parents, Godwin provides a truly personal snapshot on what life is really like for ordinary Zimbabweans fighting to survive while Mugabe and his decorated thugs indiscriminately run their country into the ground.

Currently living between Manhattan with his young family and Zimbabwe where his mother faces life as a recent widow, Godwin's unconcealed passion and despair at the country's decline only make When A Crocodile Eats The Sun all the more poignant. The reason why the world continues to ignore the plight of a nation at breaking point is one question that Godwin cannot answer - but then who can?

Left: Madman Mugabe - wiping out the Whites in former Rhodesia now called the ridiculous name of Zimbabwe after some ruins actually built by Arabs in the distant past. Here is a clear case for British forces to be sent in and restore order in this chaotic country rapidly going to the dogs!

BPP HOLD SUPERB ST. GEORGE'S DAY MEETING IN HOVE!

Forty plus Racial Nationalists gathered at a private meeting room in Hove, Sussex on April 21st to celebrate St.George's Day. Members from the BPP mixed well with BNP and NF members and supporters as well as some other smaller groups.

The speakers were Tess Culnane, formerly a BNP election candidate; Peter Rushton, National Speaker for the BPP; Eddy Morrison, National Political Advisor of the BPP and Lady Michelle Renouf, renowned Revisionist. The meeting was ably chaired by Dave Jones, the National Youth Leader of the BPP Youth Division.

Peter Williamson started the meeting off by handing the meeting over to Dave Jones, the Chairman for the afternoon. Dave gave a lively talk about the continued growth of the Youth Division and the stepped up level of activities, which is also reflected throughout the party. Dave then introduced the first speaker, Tess Culnane.

Tess gave a studied and thoughtful speech on the disintegration of British cities and the British way of life. She also drove over the point of how our traditional Christian values were being usurped and undermined by alien cultures.

Dave then introduced the ever popular Peter Rushton who talked about the forthcoming elections and reflected the BPP's 'non intervention, no criticism' policy of the BPP by wishing well and good luck to all the patriotic men and women who are standing for election on May 3rd. Peter covered a fairly wide range of topics but especially mentioned the fact that the European Union were trying a backdoor way to get Holocaust Denial or Investigation illegal in Britain by linking it to the obnoxious and tyrannous Race Acts under which White Nationalists have to live with on a daily basis.

Peter mapped out a history of these repressive laws and how each year ZOG turned the screw ever tighter on our freedom of speech.

Dave then introduced the third speaker, Eddy Morrison who gave an impassioned speech on the need for nationalists to try their own roads and if they didn't work then to come to the British People's Party, who alone holds back from running down and criticising other groups. Eddy said the BPP was not a 'sour grapes' party but one which was badly need because if the Populist road failed despite all efforts then White Nationalists and British Nationalists will have a home to come to – a party still based on the "Fourteen Words" and the fundamental values of White Nationalism. Eddy highlighted five fundamental points in which the BPP was different from the Popular Nationalists.

Eddy ended his speech by calling for the recognition that we were fighting a world enemy – Super-ZOG and the New World Order, on a global scale. The Whiteman was under attack from California in the West to the Urals Mountains in the East. The day for infighting in Britain and right across the White World was over and the time for bitter and now a last ditch defiant struggle for the very existence of our people was under way!

The final speaker was Lady Michelle Renouf who detailed some cases of Historical Revisionists in France, Austria and Germany. She mentioned the continued struggle of Professor Faurisson, and his continuous persecution by the French pro-Zionist state. Now Faurisson has cleverly turned the tables and has brought a law suit against those who would silence him. For once, continued Lady Michelle, the persecutors themselves would be in the dock!

Lady Michelle also spoke about the jailing of the German Revisionist, Germar Rudolf and also the defiant stand of David Irving who not long after his unjust jailing in Austria, spoke before a crowd of 10,000 Hungarian patriots in Budapest and invited those across the border in Austria to come and freely listen to him in a land where he himself could speak out freely out the Holocaust issue.

Lady Renouf also praised the bravery of Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, the President of Iran who defied Israel and its puppets the Blair and Bush regimes and held an open conference on the whole question of the now much doubted Holocaust.

Lady Renouf also stated she believed the BPP stance of not shifting its beliefs was most certainly the best one and she gave her support and friendship to all those who attended the meeting.

A great St.George's meeting and thanks must go from the BPP to the following comrades:-

Peter Williamson, Tony and Dave for organising the event; Brighton member "Buster" and his wife for laying on an excellent after meeting buffet; Local member Bob for the great hospitality shown to those of us from 'up North'; Kev Watmough and members of the Youth Division for a great display of banners and flags and also manning the literature table.

Between literature sales, especially of the new issue of Vanguard and a fantastic collection, well over £250.00 was raised for BPP funds. We remind readers that Hove was the home of the late, great John Tyndall and by holding a BPP Premier meeting there, the BPP was paying homage to its spiritual leader John Tyndall, still present in our hearts!

Right:
Lady Michelle Renouf speaks at Hove BPP meeting.

"BPP have the right idea" says Michelle.

How to beat the brainwashers

by Junius

First you need to read the facts

Always check the publication date when you consult your books of reference. Remember that, the older they are, the more reliable they will be. Take, for example, my Oxford Concise Dictionary of 1974. Here you will find 'racial' - of, in regard to, due to, race, and 'racialism' -tendency to racial feeling, antagonism, between different races of men. There is no mention of 'racist' or 'racism' and, if my memory serves me correctly, these silly terms were invented by the arch-traitor Harold Wilson who perfected a special way of curling his upper lip in the enunciation thereof.

Going a good deal further back in time, my copy of Cassell's New Popular Educator is not dated but is clearly a product of the late 19th. century. In the first of the eight magnificent volumes we learn that there are essentially five types of people, American Indians, Ethiopians, Caucasians, Mongolians and Malays. Remarkably, there is no recommendation that any of these different kinds should integrate, or worse, copulate.

Everyman's Encyclopedia, 1932 Edition, the standard reference work for ordinary folk, runs to 12 volumes plus an atlas, and notes Negro characteristics as being, "Deep brown, almost black, skin, cool, velvety, and emitting a peculiar odour; short black woolly hair of elliptical section; short, flat, broad snub nose with depressed base and dilated nostrils; black eye, black iris, and yellow sclerotic coat; prognathic jaws, facial angle 70º thick lips, protruding and showing the inner red; high and prominent cheek bones; very thick skull, dolicocephalic (index 70º); cranial capacity 35 (average European 45); long arms, weak legs; flat broad foot with low instep and 'lark heel'; yellowish palms and soles; height (average 5ft. 10in.) above the average."

This introduction is followed by a veritable mass of utterly unbiased comment on morals, history, and culture, where the merit of native Black artists receives particular praise. Reflect, if you will, that these observations are grounded on scholarly research and scientific analysis. The intention is to instruct the reader, not to inflame prejudice. Moreover, everything said is open to challenge and refutation without fear of persecution. As an example, you may perhaps find it difficult to equate the 'weak legs' bit with the undoubted successes of black athletes. But, importantly, compare this restrained academic approach to racial matters with the tomfool hallucinations of present day liberal journalists and politicians who would have us believe in a one-world of absolute equality!

So, where do you stand?

Some people, good people, will be satisfied with the concept of racial differences but, as I have shown, these are all fairly obvious and scarcely in dispute. To the accompaniment of catcalls such as Apartheid!, Nazi!, and so on, I see no reason to deny racial superiority. And the claim to such superiority should not be restricted to Whites or any other folk on this earth. If we think that we are particularly good at something or other then we should tell the world, as should any other race which reckons it has the edge on the rest. And, what is more, it does not matter a twopenny damn if we, or they, are wrong. But, for heaven's sake, let us stop going around apologizing for what we are and for what our race has achieved. As a start, maybe we should close down all our schools and educate the little blighters at home. Let us face it, we could hardly do worse, and they are capable of thinking for themselves.

I recently asked a delightfully intelligent sixteen year old lady what she was studying in art and music. As to the latter, she told me that her class were being taught about Schoenberg and atonality. So, how did she rate Schoenberg? "Rubbish" she replied. Now there's a girl to be reckoned with!

Left: Your next, just as treasonous, Prime Minister, Gordon Brown and below his views on what is "British"

"Britain is not defined by ethnicity," Gordon Brown says, and of course, we HAVE to believe it; otherwise, we would find ourselves in very deep water indeed. The battle cry of those defending the multi-racial/multicultural nature of "Britishness" is a blood curdling, "Death to racists!" at the sound of which all opposition cows and gives way. It is like being called a heretic in medieval Europe with its instruments of torture to enforce, if necessary, religious conformity."

Immigration causes resurgence in Tuberculosis in London

Tuberculosis cases in Britain rose by 2% last year, to over 8,000 new cases in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. London accounted for 42% of the cases, with the immigrant population identified as the primary source.

Introducing targeted tuberculosis screening would help to combat the recent rise in UK cases, a study says.

Researchers from Queen Mary's School of Medicine found that offering screening at GP surgeries increased detection rates by over a third, the Lancet said.

The team analysed data from 50 surgeries in Hackney in East London - an area with a high migrant population. Half of the practices had a screening program, while the other half tested people who presented with symptoms, such as persistent coughs, fever and weight loss, or who raised concerns about their TB status.

Among the screening group, new patients were offered verbal screening which involved them being quizzed about their migration history. Those deemed at risk were then given skin tests. In total, 47% of the 141 patients that had TB were identified via the screening program - the others were diagnosed after admission via A&E.

There was also a significant difference in latent TB diagnosed - the bacteria can lie dormant for a number of years before striking when the immune system is weakened.

There are 19 local authority areas across England, Wales and Northern Ireland where TB is classed as common - above 40 cases per 100,000.

The End of an Era

In the first years of the 21st century, history will recall that it was neoconservatism that played the role of the most despised and least understood intellectual theory. For years it languished in the obscurity of certain US university think-tanks. Though its despised adherents were important protagonists of the Cold War, it never really got much of a public airing as a theoretical system of its own.

It took, improbably, the arrival of George Bush in the White House and September 11, 2001 to catapult it into the public consciousness. When Mr Bush cited its most simplified tenet – that the US should seek to promote liberal democracy around the world – as a key case for invading Iraq, neoconservatism was suddenly everywhere. It was, to its many critics, a unified ideology that justified military adventurism, sanctioned torture and promoted aggressive Zionism. (Gerard Baker, The Times, 13th April 2007)

This quotation is not taken from a far right publication or website but straight from the pages of the The Times a paper owned by Rupert Murdoch and, until now, a staunch defender of American policy.

We could be witnessing the end of the neocons. Donald Rumsfeld has been sacked, Lewis Scooter Libby is under investigation and Paul Wolfowitz is accused of orchestrating a massive pay rise for his girlfriend Shaha Riza.

Their wars in Afghanistan and Iraq lurch from disaster to farce. Despite an extra 20,000 troops committed to securing Baghdad the insurgents were able to blow up the Iraqi Parliament in the heart of the city. After four years of fighting the security situation is getting worse and the American taxpayer is calling time.

The New American Century has got off to a shaky start. Wolfowitz's dream of a world ruled by America and guarded by NATO forces is beginning to look doubtful. The war on Lebanon was a trial run to prove the effectiveness of American surveillance and Israeli Armour but both failed the test and the invasion of Iran had to be put on hold.

Now the neocons are running out of friends and money. Their policies have killed well over a million people including thousands of Coalition troops. And it is not just minority publications that are highlighting the Zionist connection but ordinary mainstream newspapers like the The Times. Soon Tony Blair will be gone from power and a new Prime Minister will have the chance to distance Britain from the war-mongering fanatics of Washington.

It could happen here

by Junius

Speaking in the Commons, the Prime Minister confirmed that the skipper of a cross Channel ferry had noticed a gunboat flying the Iranian flag lying around a couple of miles off Dover. The Admiralty had been asked to check up on this, but were unable to comply as all five of our seaworthy British ships were engaged elsewhere in the world. Later in the day, an elderly reconnaissance aircraft had been commissioned to investigate, the pilot reporting that, "It had certainly not been there last year."

The Tory leader was very quick to get on his feet and wondered, though he did not wish to appear racist, exactly what this vessel was doing so many hundreds of miles from its home waters. President Bush had, after all, made it abundantly clear that only nations approved of by Washington were permitted to have atomic weapons and indulge in international manoeuvres.

Mr.Ming, speaking for the Lib-Dems, considered that there was a strong possibility that these 'poor chaps' were asylum seekers, and suggested that they might be invited to disembark and discuss their problems over a cup of tea at local party headquarters.

So, does this affair pose some threat to our islands? Apparently not because, some three hours later, it was announced in Teheran that all naval craft were being fitted with new and up-to-date navigation equipment. Phew! Could have been nasty!

REMEMBER STEVE THORBURN - METRIC MARTYR

The European Commission's Industry Commissioner Gunther Verheugen quietly announced in a meeting on 2nd May that "dual marking" of goods in imperial and metric will 'continue indefinitely'.

Following intense lobbying by the Metric Martyrs Campaign and excellent work with US business by the British Weights and Measures Association, Commissioner Verheugen agreed that imperial measurements are good for business.

Papers also released to the Metric Martyrs by the Department for Trade and Industry also indicate that the Government and the DTI have performed a screeching u- turn and abandoned plans to abolish imperial measures after 2009.

This represents a monumental victory for the Metric Martyrs who have campaigned tirelessly from their Sunderland office against enforced metrication since two Sunderland traders, Neil Herron and Steve Thorburn were first targeted by the authorities in March 2000.

It is now apparent that the persecution of Steve Thorburn (and subsequently 4 other traders whose cases were consolidated into the Thorburn appeal) was politically motivated but the resistance that their defiant stand created forced all the other local authorities to back off and they have been held at bay for 7 years.

The Metric Martyrs saw their convictions upheld at the Court of Appeal when Lord Justice Laws delivered a verdict that established the primacy of EU law.

Market trader Steve Thoburn, from Sunderland, was prosecuted by the city's trading standards depart-

Tragically, Steve died in his wife's arms of a massive heart attack only days after learning that his appeal to the European Court of Human Rights had been rejected.

He had vowed to continue to defy the law and continued serving his customers in the way they wanted to be served.

Campaign Director, and former fishmonger, Neil Herron states:
"This is a monumental victory for the Metric Martyrs and all who have supported the campaign. It has been "People Power" that has forced the European Commission and the Government to abandon the enforced metrication programme.
"We have saved the pint, the mile, the yard, the foot as well as pounds and ounces.
"We have stood toe to toe with the Government and the EU and won and shown others that you can stop the tide of EU legislation."

Steve Thorburn was the man who drew the line in the sand. All that remains now for the campaign is to insist on a Royal Pardon to quash the criminal conviction that Steve took with him to the grave.
He should never have been prosecuted and ALL the authorities knew that it should never have happened.

The public had never wanted or asked for imperial measures to be abolished and no political party had ever put it in their manifesto that they intended to criminalise the use of imperial measures.

AFTER THE MAY 3rd ELECTIONS

Peter Rushton comments...

Factions and other internal matters would very rarely have a direct bearing on an average voter. But the indirect effect of the type of factionalism that has beset the BNP, especially in its most crucial target areas, is devastating.

A party like the BNP simply isn't so well equipped in talent and experience that it can afford to cast off people of the calibre of Steven Smith and Simon Bennett in Burnley, to name but two.

Take the election count in Burnley's Rosegrove with Lowerhouse ward, where the BNP was at one stage a vote ahead, but lost after a recount and drawing of lots. The people in the Burnley count with the most experience of electoral law and procedures (and more generally of serious politics) were all from the EFP not the BNP (even though the BNP is by far the larger party).

By the time of the controversial recounts, five of the EFP team had left the building (since our counts were finished), one was on the phone to a friend (who herself was banned from speaking to a BNP meeting not long ago), and another was unable to assist because our party had no legal status in that particular ward.

BNP agent Dave Shapcott was left to take decisions for which he simply isn't qualified, against the full might of a Labour team including Burnley's MP Kitty Ussher.

Had we all been still in the same party, don't you think we would have had a better chance of prevailing, and coming away with another BNP council seat gained? All so sad, and all so predictable.

Manpower can't fully compensate for lack of ideal conditions.

The problem with the BNP is not that it has failed to take hundreds of seats nationwide - we would need far more favourable conditions for that to be feasible.

The problem is that even in those frontline areas where conditions have been close to optimal ever since the turn of the millennium, the BNP has made progress, only to fall back. A full analysis would take several pages, but alongside Burnley just think of Oldham and Blackburn.

Experienced individuals have been marginalised, expelled or alienated; which has in turn worsened demoralisation among the broader activist base.

The "nazi" tag will always be there, though arguably less of a problem the further we move away from 1945, and the more public scepticism about the authorised version of history is stimulated by such blatant establishment lies as the "weapons of mass destruction" fiasco.

In my experience the most effective smears against the party have been less about national socialism, or any other ideological issue, than about the criminal records and general behaviour of certain people in the BNP and the broader movement . It isn't IMHO a question of the BNP having attained its "maximal outreach", even though a net gain of one would suggest that, as the BNP website currently puts it, the party has worked hard to stand still.

The BNP has not simply held its former ground

On the contrary, it has been beaten backwards in some of its strongest areas, losing eight of the nine council seats it was defending, and often losing by large margins, while at the same time breaking new ground in different areas .There was only one BNP heartland area - Stoke - where the party made real progress this week, and even there the margins of victory were very tight.

After all that gloom, congratulations are due to the BNP's Sadie Graham, who won Brinsley ward on Broxtowe Council with a majority of 144, defeating a Labour candidate who is also the local vicar .

TURNING THE SCREW

by Eddy Morrison

Since the introduction of the odious Race Relations Act in 1968 by the equally odious Jim Callaghan, the then Home Secretary and crypto-Marxist, this Act has been strengthened and twisted in an ever frantic attempt by the Old System to turn the screw on White Nationalists and to change the law. The first prosecution took place under the 1968 legislation against the Sussex based Racial Preservation Society - result, the accused were all found not guilty. So the tyrants who run our country, be they from any party, decided to turn the screw again and in 1970 included the slippery term "likely" into the Act. This made the whole law a very grey area. White Nationalists could produce literature which they had no intention of stirring racial hatred up with - but because they might be seen "as likely too", then the System had a much better chance of achieving conviction. This was further strengthened and the System screwdriver was out again when the 1976 Race Relations Act was introduced.

Under the new and nasty Race Acts, the National Front of the 1970's suffered most with many leading activists going to prison - Joe Pearce for issues of the NF Youth magazine BULLDOG; Martin Webster for National Front News and Martin Wingfield for a fairly innocuous leaflet. Again in the 1980's John Tyndall and John Morse were imprisoned for an issue of British Nationalist. None of these publications could be directly linked to any racial attacks or hatred but in the vagaries of our sick legal system they might have been likely too. In other words if the system cannot get you one way then they move the goalposts, change the law, turn the screw on our freedom of speech.

Now we see the European Union getting in on the Act in a move to impose a law linking the denial of the Holocaust to the Race Acts. Denying the Holocaust could be banned in Great Britain - as it already is in many European countries - because somehow, and God knows how, it could be LIKELY to cause racial hatred. How the investigation of history 60 years ago could cause racial hatred is beyond me!

We will continue to support Historical Revisionists everywhere even if we ourselves are forbidden to give facts and figures and dare to cast any doubt on the Holocaust. This suppression of truth is obscene and closely resembles the heretical witch hunts of the medieval era when to say the Earth went around the sun could result in a public burning! Another point which springs to mind is that if I was a Jew in Britain I would probably breathe a sigh of great relief if I knew that all those members of my race didn't die in any Holocaust. The truth would benefit all but those who have a political agenda which wishes to use the Holocaust as a hammer to smash down resurgent White Nationalism throughout the world.

But that isn't really the point. Theoretically, Israel can extradite ANYONE who questions the New World Order version of history can be actually kidnapped by Israel and face a kangaroo court behind a glass cage. Their supposed crime? Trying to find out the truth and what really happened. That is all Historical Revisionism is about - the search for historical truth. The Holocaust however CANNOT be questioned! To do so is to be like Galileo when he tried to show that the Sun was the centre of our solar system and had to recant - even though he knew he was right - or face torture and death.

As I write this article two men amongst many are suffering jail terms in Germany: Germar Rudolf and Ernst Zundel who dared to question the set in stone Zionist view of history. These two brave historians and many others are, still to their credit, standing up for their right to question and investigate. In Orwellian terms they are standing up for their right just to THINK!

The screw is turned tighter by our alien manipulated Government in Britain each and every day. Each and every day too our tradition values of freedom of speech, writing and action is being whittled away. Our Hartlepool organiser is facing possible prosecution merely for possessing some stickers which bear the slogan "Britain for the British" - now considering most non-Whites in Britain carry a British passport then how can "Britain for the British" be likely to cause racial hatred? It cannot. Only the most twisted and sick liberal multi-racialist can see any other message than a straightforward call for a land to belong to its people and saying we do not want further mass immigration by people who by no stretch of the imagination are British or hold British passports whatever their ethnic background. Yet by bringing this petty harassment, which surely must be thrown out by the Crown Prosecution Service, they are trying to make White Nationalists retreat even further on the subject that must be NUMBER ONE PRIORITY for all White patriots in Britain - the alerting of the White British people to the fact that not only we active White Nationalists but also the public themselves are under attack by unjust and quite frankly laws that would not have been out of place in Alice in Wonderland!

Another new twist of the screw is to tag the words "Racially aggravated" to any and every supposed crime where ethnics and Whites are concerned, turning a simple breach of the peace for instance in a fair graver offence with fair graver sentences. Kevin Hughes, an active BNP member was given a shocking two and half years in jail for a "racially aggravated " assault as opposed to a common assault which was actually just a small row in a pub. Such is the state of the country we live in. As Kevin and many others, languish in prison for POLITICAL crimes, the State - run by out and out Marxists despite New labour's smiling false image - forever, under their alien masters direction continue to look for ways to "turn the screw" on patriots of all groups and parties.

The BPP is committed to the repeal of the Race Laws as unjust and obscene. Till that time comes when we are in a position to legally do this, then a large part of our propaganda efforts must be invested in waking up the British people to the fact that Free Speech is just a joke and that we live under a cloud of political repression. The White British are waking up! I speak to ordinary men and women regularly and if the subject of political persecution turns up they are incensed immediately that Free Speech is dead. Proof of this was seen when Nick Griffin and Mark Collett were found not guilty under the Race Act. White Britain cheered whilst the evil multi-racialists, the ones really responsible for racial hatred by enforcing integration on people of many races who do not want it, went back to their grubby law books to work out a way that could ensure convictions in the future.

The BPP will fight tooth and nail through the courts if it comes to it for its right to say "Britain for the British". In the end we might even have to resort to printing leaflets with a heading such as "The truth about the Holocaust" or "The truth about race and immigration" and just a big "CENSORED BY THE RACE LAWS" across them. I feel this will wake people up still further when they can see that we can no longer tell them the real truth about just what is going on in this once proud and free nation.

Freedom to speak, act, write and think is the basis of all our operations. We must fight furiously to preserve and turn back the tide of oppression so once again we can speak freely about the real concerns and dreadful dangers that face our White Race and our once sovereign nation.

How long before we racists are being burned at the stake for daring to tell the truth about Race and Racial differences?

Many thanks to the COVERT-TACTICS TEAM for broadcasting the Hove BPP meeting twice on their forum through Internet radio. We know hundreds tuned in from the very positve resposne we have had to the broadcast. We hope soon to have the whole meeting on Audio CD - watch our merchandising pages for details.
